THE DAILY ASTORIAN, Astoria, Oregon, Wednesday, January 23,

First Lutheran Faith Circle

Installation of officers highlighted the latest meeting of the Faith Circle First Lutheran Church, Astoria. Lenore Hauke heads a 1974 slate of officers that includes Ellen Hansen, vice chairwoman; Frances Gustafson, secretary, and Jennie Kelm, treasurer.

Beatrice Swensen was the installing officer.

Jessie Miller introduced the Bible study lesson for the year "Courage for Today, Hope for Tomorrow." The study is based on the book of Revelations.

Mrs. Hauke was hostess for the meeting, with Mrs. Swensen to act as hostess for the February meeting. Mrs. Hansen will present the Bible study lesson.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN, Astoria, Oregon, Tuesday, November 19, 1974

Faith Circle

Lenore Hauke is the new chairwoman of Faith Circle of First Lutheran Church. Other new officers for the group are Ellen Hansen vice-chairwoman, Jennie Kelm treasurer and Frances Gustafson secretary.

At a recent meeting of Faith Circle Jessie Miller spoke on "New People in a New World" and "He is Coming Soon." Both lessons were based on Revelations 21 and 22.

Faith Circle will sponsor the annual Christmas party for women and girls of the church Dec. 3.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN, Astoria, Oregon, Tuesday, February 26, 1974

Faith Circle, First Lutheran

This time the men of Astoria's First Lutheran Church sponsored a dinner for the women.

It was their way of saying thanks for all the dinners church women have sponsored for them in the past.

The women of Faith Circle undoubtedly appreciated the Sunday event.

At their March meeting they will hear a lesson presented by Venus Luukinen. Frances Gustafson will be hostess.

Ellen Hansen presented the lesson. Christ is concerned for his church, and Beatrice Swensen was hostess for the group's February meeting.

Faith Circle

More than 80 women attended the recent Christmas party at First Lutheran Church sponsored by Faith Circle for all the women of the church.

"The Christmas Story" was read by Venus Luukinen, music was presented by the Agape, the Pete Plyter family and Pastor and Mrs. Arne Strandjord and Carol Lyngstad provided music for carol singing.

Norwegian delicacies were served to those present and the evening's offering was sent to the Lutheran Children's Home in Everett, Wash.

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents and treasure,

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

This organization meets the first Tuesday of each month at noon. February, May, October and December are evening meetings. There are no meetings in July and August.

Faith Circle

Gail Hauke Latimer and Anna Marie Butler of Lebanon presented a Christmas program in word and song for several women who attended a recent Christmas party hosted by Faith Circle of First Lutheran Church in Astoria.

Cindy Ganzkow, an intern pastor at the church, read the Christmas story and Grace Eliassen played the piano while those attending joined hands around a Christmas tree to sing Christmas carols.

Offering taken at the party was sent to a Lutheran children's home at Everett, Wash.

In Faith Circle's last meeting of the year, Madeline Kvistad installed officers for 1976. New officers for the group are Mrs. Ed Hansen, chairwoman; Jennie Kelm, vice-chairwoman; Mary Luukinen, secretary; Ethel Berry, treasurer; Nedra Christensen, education; and Ellen Peterson, stewardship chairwoman.

Faith Circle

Intern Pastor Craig Wanamaker and his wife Kristi presented the story of "The Four Advent Candles" in word and song at a recent Christmas party hosted by Faith Circle of First Lutheran Church in Astoria.

The party was for all church women and also featured caroling around a Christmas tree and a buffet of Christmas foods. Offering taken at the party will be sent to Luther Child Center in Everett, Wash.

New Faith Circle officers recently installed by Jessie Miller include Ellen Hansen, president; Jennie Kelm, vice-president; Ellen Morris, secretary; Ethel Berry, treasurer; Nedra Christensen, education secretary; and Ellen Peterson, stewardship secretary.

First Lutheran Women

An original Christmas story by Emily Olsen highlighted a recent holiday party hosted by Faith Circle of First Lutheran Church for the women of the church and their friends.

The festivity also included vocal selections by Magdalene Bruland and a number of folk dances performed by members of the Nordic and Little Nordic Dancers who also are members of the church.

Eunice Strandjord led the evening devotions for the party, which ended with those attending gathering in a circle around a Christmas tree to sing Christmas carols.

An offering taken that evening will be presented to the Luther Child Center in Everett, Wash.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

This is an auxiliary of the women of The American Lutheran Church that bands the women of the church together for fellowship, growth and for service. It is composed of all women who are members of our church. It is the local branch of The American Lutheran Church.

The purpose, as stated in the constitution, is to KNOW AND DO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST BY:

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents and treasure,

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

This organization meets the first Tuesday of each month at noon. May, June, October, and December are evening meetings. There are no meetings in July and August.

A work day will be held on the fourth Tuesday of the month to sew for the missions and for the Lutheran World Relief projects. Old sheets, drapes and material are always needed for these projects.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

This is an auxiliary of the women of The American Lutheran Church that bands the women of the church together for fellowship, growth, and for service. It is composed of all women who are members of our church. It is the local branch of The American Lutheran Church.

The purpose, as stated in the constitution, is to KNOW AND DO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST BY:

inspiring in the individual member a deeper consecration to our Savior,

developing stewardship of time, talents, and treasure,

disseminating knowledge of the program of the church of Jesus Christ, particularly of The American Lutheran Church,

spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

This organization meets the first Tuesday of each month at noon. May, June, October, and December are evening meetings. There are no meetings in July and August.

A work day will be held on the fourth Tuesday of the month to sew for the missions and for the Lutheran World Relief projects. Old sheets, drapes, and material are always needed for these projects.

Processional Hymn 369
"The Church's One Foundation"

Opening Prayer:
O Lord, our Maker, Redeemer, and Comforter, we are assembled in Thy presence to hear Thy holy Word. We pray Thee so to open our hearts by Thy Holy Spirit, that through the preaching of Thy Word we may be taught to repent of our sins, to believe on Jesus in life and in death, and to grow day by day in grace and holiness. Hear us for Christ's sake. Amen

Hymn "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" 439

Confession of Sin:
Almighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess unto Thee, that we are by nature sinful and unclean, and that we have sinned against Thee by thought, word, and deed. Wherefore we flee for refuge to Thine infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Thy grace, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

THE SERVICE OF INSTALLATION

Of The Rev. Chester L. Johnson

As Pastor of First Lutheran Church

Astoria, Oregon

Sunday, October 5, 1980

4:00 P.M.

THE SERVICE OF INSTALLATION

Pastor Brueckner: Having been authorized by the Church to install Chester L. Johnson, our fellow worker in the Gospel, as pastor of this congregation, I now ask for certification of his call.

Edith Henningsgaard, President: We, of First Lutheran Church, after prayerful deliberation, have elected Chester L. Johnson to be our pastor. I present this Letter of Call which we have issued and he has accepted.

Pastor Brueckner: Recall what our Lord Jesus Christ says: "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

And again, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age."

Pastor Johnson: Yes

Pastor Brueckner: Will you be faithful in your pastoral ministry? Will you be diligent in your use of the means of grace? Will you preach and teach in accordance with the Holy Scriptures and the Confessions of the Lutheran Church? Will you pray for your people and nourish them with the Word of God and holy Sacraments, leading them in faithful service and holy living?

Pastor Johnson: Yes, with the help of God.

Pastor Brueckner: The Lord who has given you the will to do these things graciously give you the strength and compassion to perform them.

(Questions to the Congregation): And you, people of God, will you receive Pastor Chester L. Johnson, a messenger of Jesus Christ, sent by God and ordained to serve His people with the message of hope and salvation? Will you regard him as a servant of Christ and a steward of the mysteries of God? Will you give attention to his word and his instruction, accept his correction with repentance and his absolution with joy, be consoled and strengthened from God's word for a holy and godly life? For it is written, "Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will have to give account. Let them do this joyfully and not sadly, for that would be of no advantage to you." Will you, therefore, pray for him, help and honor him for his work's sake, and in all things strive to live together in peace and unity in Christ?

Congregation: WE WILL, AND WE ASK GOD TO HELP US.

Pastor Brueckner: Upon these solemn promises, I now declare Chester L. Johnson pastor of First Lutheran Church, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. AMEN

AT THE BAPTISMAL FONT - Pat Ericksen

God is among His people in His saving, healing and redeeming presence. He has embraced us in our Baptism, In that action we were washed in the Name of the Triune God, "Marked with the Cross of Christ forever," and made members of the Christian community. The life of this community and of each Christian person is, as Luther once noted, "...nothing else than a daily baptism, once begun and ever continued." We gather to worship because we are baptized. The words of the invocation and the accomanying sign of the cross remind us that Baptism is the foundation of our worship and life before God. Be among us to Baptize and teach.

AT THE ALTAR - Edith Henningsgaard

God comes into our lives in many ways. For centuries, Christians have believed that the most powerful expression and experience of this gracious presence occurs in worship. In the simple gestures and actions of singing, praying, proclaiming, offering, and sacramental sharing, we are met and known and loved by God and Christ. Early Christians called these gestures and actions the Eucharist, a word closely related to the New Testament word for grace: Charis. For them the Eucharist was a service of thanksgiving, a grateful celebration of grace. As God's people in this time and place, we gather to celebrate and witness to our faith that He who died and rose again is truly among us as God's gift of grace. Be among us to lead our worship and preside at the Lord's Table.

AT THE PULPIT - Lowell Knapp

Having been gathered by God's Word into the community of the Spirit, we now listen to that Word proclaimed in the lessons. Yet this Word is more than mere words, and we hear more than just what God did centuries ago. For the God who spoke to Israel and to the early Christian community speaks to us now through this Word, revealing His will for our lives. We are not only being instructed in the history of God's dealings with humanity, but we, too, are being called and grasped by His life-giving Word. Be among us to proclaim the Good News.

Pastor Brueckner: Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do His will, working in you that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus; to whom be glory forever and ever. AMEN

Pastor Chester Johnson was born and raised on a farm near Pine City, Minnesota. Helen was also from the farm near Harmony, Minnesota. They are both graduates of the University of Minnesota. For two years after their marriage they taught school at Kenyon, Minnesota and then they developed their own poultry farm and hatchery on an 8½ acre plot on the edge of Harmony, Minnesota which they operated for five years.

Having felt the call to go into the ministry, they moved to St. Paul, Minnesota where Chet attended Luther Theological Seminary and Helen taught school at Minnehaha Academy and North St. Paul.

Upon completion of the seminary training, they accepted a Call to serve First and Bethel Lutheran Churches at Rugby, North Dakota where they lived for five years. Their next Call was to Trinity Lutheran Church at Jamestown, North Dakota where they lived for twelve years.

It was then their privilege to serve the American Church of Copenhagen for three years. While there they traveled extensively in Europe and visited the Holy Land, Moscow and Leningrad.

The Johnsons have four children: David, living at home, is a senior at Astoria High School; Douglas and his wife, Jo, are both lawyers at Bismark, North Dakota; Paul, manager of the Jamestown Civic Center, lives in Jamestown, North Dakota; Peggy, with Boeing Computer Services, lives in Des Moines, Washington near Seattle.

Chrismons refurbished for the holiday season

Women of Astoria's First Lutheran Church have refurbished the church's Chrismons, handmade gold and white decorations with Christian symbols, for the holiday season.

The ornaments will be used when the sanctuary tree is decorated for the season this evening. Virginia Estes explained the origin and meaning of the special decorations at a recent Christmas party for women and girls of the church.

Nedra Christensen opened the party with a devotion. There also was entertainment by the Viking Dancers, directed by Bonnie Ladd, and The Grannies. Grace Eliassen provided music as those attending the party gathered around a tree to sing Christmas carols.

Members of the church also gathered recently for a "how to" session offering demonstrations in rug hooking, hardanger, tree ornament making, stained glass and picture frames and baking lefsa, krumkake, peparkakor, kringle and rosettes.

Nonegenerian hosted on 90th birthday

Festivites for her 90th birthday began for Mrs. Lydia Siverson when Faith Circle of the First Lutheran Church of Astoria gave a surprise birthday party for her at its July meeting. Other honored guests were members of the Ladies Aid of which she had been an active member before they had finally disbanded due to old age.

Mrs. Siverson was born in East Tawas, Mi., but lived in Astoria with her late husband Chris, who operated a fish trap on the Columbia River until they were outlawed. They had two children. George, who also follows the fishing trade, with his wife Alameda live in Astoria. Norma, wife of Joseph Bennett, lives on Mercer Island in Washington. Mrs. Siverson proudly tells that all six of her grandchildren have gone to the University of Washington. Grandma Siverson also had eight great grandchildren.

George could not attend, since he was fishing in Alaska, but Alameda gave a luncheon for Mrs. Siverson and seven of her Ladies Aid friends at her home Friday. On July 18 the Bennett family were in Astoria and hosted the birthday dinner at a local restaurant for members of the family.

Mrs. George Siverson topped off the celebration by taking all family members to brunch on Sunday.

Survives Accident

A Warrenton woman, Ruth McLean,. escaped serious injury when her car ran off SE Dolphin at 10:30 a.m.. Sunday, according to Warrenton Police Chief Bill Bronson. Personnel at Columbia Memorial Hospital said there was no record of treatment and Chief Bronson didn't have the nature or extent of injuries. .

A LIVELY TIME FOR LYDIA — When Lydia Siverson's birthday rolled around the other day, a round of entertainment in her honor proved the importance of being 90. Lydia has been a member of Charity Circle of First Lutheran Church for many, many years. So, the celebrations for Lydia's 90th started off with a luncheon, hosted by Faith Circle of the church. Grace Johnson was chairwoman and Eva Jarvi presided at the coffee service for the luncheon at which not only Lydia but all the members of the historic Charity Circle were guests of honor. But, it was kept a secret from Lydia until that very day.

The next day, Lydia's daughter-in-law, Almeda Siverson, had a luncheon at the Astoria Golf and Country Club for Lydia and all the other Charity Circle members. Present were Hilda Anderson, Marie Sather, Louise Fremstad, Aagot Anderson, Astrid Wooley, Astrid Tondel, Lydia and Donna Holmstedt, an honorary member of the circle.

And then, Lydia's daughter Norma Bennett arrived in town from her home on Mercer Island, Wash., to be hostess at a dinner for members of the family.

The festivities didn't end then, for the next morning after church, Lydia and her family wound up the event with a brunch downtown.

onthly business, study and social meeti s are held, hosted by members.

ost of the group who work for Lutheran world relief are from Faith.

esponsibility for and most of the flower arrangements for the alt r are done by our group.

The majority of the group for Bible st dy are Faith members.

We have adopted the members of Hope Circle. Louise Frenstad and Marie Sather have become members. A nineth birthday party for Aagot Anderson was given in May. Cards are sent to shutins. They are all welcome to meetings.

Our members are faithful to FLCW by coming to meetings, serving as officers and helping however we are able. We take our turn with after church coffees, greeting and helping with communion.

aith Circle is an auxiliary of FLCW, also its oldest consistently active member, celebrating its 80th year since it was organized by teenage girls in 1893. The originally named "Girls' ild" was renamed "Senior Circle" in the thirties, and is now known as "Faith Circle. The teenagers are now retired persons, and their evening meeting is now an afternoon coffee meeting. They have adopted the wording Ladies Aid or Charity Circle and some of them have become active members.

"GIRLS'" GUILD MEETS — Little did a group of teenage girls who met Oct. 17, 1922, to organize a "Girls' Guild" at the Norwegian Lutheran church think that they would be celebrating their 60th anniversary in October 1982.

More than 40, along with guests, banqueted together renewing acquaintances and recalling past get-togethers. While most of the hair had greyed, and the eager boyfriends weren't waiting for "eats," the jollity and friendliness was still present. Now that group is known as Faith Circle and the church is known as First Lutheran, but the girls still decorate the altar, make quilts, come to Bible studies and are active in other church projects.

The toastmistress, Ellen Hansen, introduced President Venus Luukinen, who had just rushed home from Salem where she had become the grandmother of twins, born to her son Charles and his wife. Between telling about the babies, she greeted all to the party.

Songs that had been sung at every reunion were revised and sung by all.

Emily Olsen read her original poem about the group that has been delivered at each special occasion. Greetings from absent members were read and reported. "When the Minister Calls" had also been brought up to date. It was read by Jessie Miller.

A special treat highlighted the program when former pastor, the Rev. Arne and Eunice Strandjord came from Vancouver, Wash., to sing a number of duets for all. Both Strandjord and Pastor Chet Johnson had messages and congratulations for the group both had worked with.

Group singing closed the formal program, but much talking and browsing through the old history book kept the party going.

Out of town guests, mostly former members were Martha Alsaker, Eleanor Hauke Anderson, Marian Van Osdol, Edith Offtedol, Astrid Hauke Keller and the Strandjords.

Charter members present were Madeline Rasmussen (Kvistad), president, Grace Rasmussen (Johnson) treasurer, Olga Hauke (Henningsen) secretary, Margaret Larson (Lervick), Wilma Kvistad (Englund), Clara Halvorsen (Miles), Eda Hauke (Ross) and Anne Edwards.

The oldest person at the dinner was Lydia Severson, who had celebrated her 92nd birthday recently and was awarded a special prize. The youngest was Donna Holmsted, who has been honorary member for years, making all the special programs and announcements in the church office. She had made the special programs for the anniversary, decorating them with an embroidered seal and jewel. She, too, received a gift. Mrs. Strandjord's mother, Edith Offtedol, won hands down for having 24 grandchildren.

EXIT

Strandjord guest at First Lutheran

Arne Strandjord, pastor of First Lutheran Church, Astoria, from 1971 to 1979, will return as guest pastor Sunday at the church as part of its 100th anniversary celebration. Strandjord is now pastor at Messiah Lutheran Church in Vancouver, Wash.

Arne Strandjord

Mrs. Strandjord was a kindergarten teacher at Astor Elementary School during the family's years in Astoria and four of their children graduated from Astoria High School.

Strandjord's sermon at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday will be "Do It to Me." A potluck will follow the 11 a.m. service.

trandjord....

I am a sentimental person. That first sentence tells as much about me as any recital of dates and so called facts of life. Being sentimental I look forward to returning to First Lutheran of Astoria to have a part in celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the congregation.

First fact - One of the early pastors of First Lutheran was Pastor Losen. During my growing up years he served a congregation near Decorah, Iowa, and our families got together as my father had been a friend of Pastor Losen since college days. Little did I realize then that someday I would live and serve in the same community and church that he talked about.

Other facts - I was born in Grafton, North Dakota, January 11, 1926. I was the fourth child of Eunice (Langeland) Strandjord and Pastor S.J. Strandjord. At the age of 3 our family moved to St. Olaf, Iowa, which was my home until leaving home. World War II and navy duty in the Pacific was the cause of this home leaving. My next stop was Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, from which I graduated in 1950. I attended Luther Theological Seminary, graduating in the spring of 1953. I have served four congregations. First Lutheran, Mt. Vernon, WA, 8 years; Immanuel Lutheran, Seattle, WA, 11 Years; First Lutheran, Astoria, OR, 8 years; Messiah Lutheran, Vancouver, WA, for the last 4 years.

Eunice Ofstedal and I were married in 1951. Eunice teaches in the Evergreen School District of Vancouver. We have five children. Jonathan and his wife Jeanette live in Five Points, Wisconsin. They serve a Lutheran congregation there. They have one daughter. Peter and his wife Jenifer live in Crane, Oregon. Peter teaches music in the public school and Jenifer is a nurse. They have three sons. Kari is married to David Blanco. They both teach school in Huslia, Alaska. Kristi is married to Douglas Dalenberg and they both are in graduate school at the University of Oregon. Joseph is a senior at Pacific University as is his fiance, Lisa Boers.

First Lutheran of Astoria and the community have been and continue to be an important part of my life.

'Good night, Ma'

by Rory T. Scott

The old man was weeping, and I was, too. He leaned over the bedrail to say good-bye to his wife, his almost lifelong lover, who had just died. With tears falling from his face, he gently caressed her face one last time and said, "Rest in peace, Ma."

We were about to leave the room to go out into the lonely night when he turned back to say the words he must have said softly to her each night for 54 years: "Good night, Ma."

I preach sermons regularly. But as I reflected on the old man's words, they became a sermon to me—words of resurrection and life in the midst of death.

What do we mean when we say "Good night" to a loved one? The words themselves say simply, "Have a good night, a peaceful sleep." But there is much more to this benediction.

To say "Good night" is to release our loved ones into the hands and care of another. To say "Good night" and then fall asleep ourselves is to leave no one awake for the watch except the one who will "neither slumber nor sleep" (Psalm 121:4).

"Good night" is a word of trust. To say it is to declare that our heavenly Father is in control and will not forsake us, whatever the night brings.

"Good night" also means "I look forward to seeing you in the morning, when both of us have been renewed and refreshed by the gift of sleep." It says, "I am certain we shall be together again to enjoy life."

Sleep is no enemy to be feared. Neither is the grave. I do not think it is helpful to say "She is only sleeping" when someone dies—because that is to deny the reality of death. Yet sleep and death are similar in that both are followed by resurrection and new beginnings for those who are alive in the Lord.

As he said "Good night, Ma" in his grief, I heard him saying in deeper, inaudible tones: "It hurts to leave you now, for we have shared much. But I'll see you in the morning on the other side of the grave. For as surely as the Lord rose from his bed of death, so shall you and I as we trust in him."

"Good night" is a gospel word. Although we can say it grudgingly or in anger—and thus make it out to be law—it is meant to convey the good news of love. It reflects our love for one another. Most important, it reflects God's untiring love for us.

Listen closely to the "sermon" the next time someone you love says "Good night" to you. And take care that your good nights express love, hope, gentleness, and peace in the name of our risen Lord. ■

Rory Scott is a pastor of Bethesda Lutheran Church in Eugene, Ore.

PASTOR RORY SCOTT

March 18 - 4 p.

Pastor Rory T. Scott was born in Madison, Wisconsin, on November 1, 1950. He was raised in the Christian faith in a little Norwegian Lutheran congregation called Bristol Lutheran Church in Sun Prairie, Wisconsin. He graduated from Sun Prairie High School in 1968. From there, he attended Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa, from 1968 to 1972, graduating from Wartburg in May of 1972. Then he enrolled at Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, and he graduated in May of 1976. While at Luther Seminary, Rory served his internship at First Lutheran Church in Astoria, Oregon, under the care and guidance of Pastor Arne Strandjord.

Following graduation from Luther Seminary, Rory accepted a call to serve as Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in St. Thomas, North Dakota. He served there until July of 1981 when he then accepted a call to serve as Pastor at Bethesda Lutheran Church in Eugene, Oregon, where he is serving at the present time.

Rory and his wife, Wanda, have been blessed with two sons, Jamie, age 12, and Joshua, age 9.

Greetings to the people of First Lutheran Church!

In so many ways it seems much less than six years since our time of internship with you in Astoria, and yet so much has happened in that time that it is difficult to know where to begin. After graduating from seminary in 1979 Paula, Nathaniel and I spent the summer in Portland where I completed a course in Clinical Pastoral Education. While there we received the call to serve Froid and Ebenezer Lutheran Churches, located in this rural NE corner of Montana, near Bonnie Ladd's old stomping grounds! The summer of '84 will mark five years for us here, years that have seen the end to an oil boom and a return to the less hectic pace of years past. The opportunities for service and ministry still abound, however, and we solicit your prayers.

Nathaniel was joined by a little sister, Hilary, in July of 1981, and we were all excited by the arrival of Erica in January of this year. Our family continues to be a growing source of joy and support, especially during the times of isolation which rural living can sometimes bring. We do keep busy, however: Nathaniel with completing kindergarten, Paula with a home-sewing business, and me with serving as NE Montana Conference President and representative to the Rocky Mountain District Council, as well as a member of the board of directors of the local hospital district.

Michael Hanson

I was born on June 19, 1950, in Steven Point, Wisconsin, where my father was a pastor. In 1955 we moved to Princeton, New Jersey. In 1957 we moved to Sioux Falls, South Dakota where my father began teaching at Augustana College. I lived there through grade school, high school and college. One memory that remains strong from that period was our family devotions every evening before going to bed.

I graduated from Augustana College in 1972, majoring in Physics and Mathematics. I had been active for two previous summers in youth work at Outlaw Ranch Bible Camp and therefore chose to continue in the same vein traveling with Lutheran Youth Encounter teams that summer and fall, and I traveled with a Cross Fire team in East Africa for 15 months in 1973-74.

After a few years of rebellion against God in High School, I realized God was calling me by name to be His. And it was primarily for this reason that I turned to His Word and counseled at Bible camps and on youth teams throughout college and thereafter.

While in East Africa on the Cross Fire team I met Elaine Coltvedt (also a member of that team). We also got to know an african pastor who one evening while visiting pointedly asked me, "Where is God calling you?" I had never seriously asked that question. I had more or less chosen my own future rather than asked God where He wanted me. And, from that point on until the end of our tour the Lord impressed upon me that He was calling me to serve Him as a missionary overseas.

Upon returning to the U.S., I was a youth director for one year and then Elaine and I were married June 1, 1975. I entered Luther Seminary with the intention of becoming a missionary, interned with you in Astoria, and graduated in 1980. After another year and a half of further study, Elaine and I were called of the Lord through the American Lutheran Church to serve Him in Garoua Boulai, Cameroun, where I am currently the director of the Bible School.

Cynthia Ganzkow-Wold

I interned at First Lutheran during 1975-76. All interns are a little nervous about internship prior to their arrival, but when I received news that my supervising pastor, Arne Strandjord, was to have open heart surgery soon after I arrived, my anxiety doubled. As I traveled across the midwest to Astoria my excitement grew also, and I'll always remember my first glimpse of this town by the river.

The congregation may have wondered how they would respond to the first woman intern in Oregon, but I was warmly welcomed and our year together was a great learning experience. The staff that year included Arne, who had great talent for encouraging an intern to try their skills, and Donna Holmstedt, church secretary, who was steadfastly gracious, warm-hearted and kind.

During my internship year I was planning our wedding. Steve and I were married on August 29, 1976. We graduated from seminary in 1977, and accepted calls in Bison, South Dakota. In January 1979 our son, Benjamin was born, and in November we moved to Aberdeen, South Dakota to serve as team pastors at Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Bethlehem has 2,500 baptized members and there were four pastors on staff. In 1981, our daughter Emily was born and in 1982 my husband, Steve became director of Lutheran Social Services in Aberdeen. Currently, I am still serving at Bethlehem and look forward to several more years here.

My memories of First Lutheran Church are happy ones. As I reflect on that time, faces and names resurface in my mind and I am eager to renew those friendships.

God's best wishes on your one hundred years, may the Gospel continue to ring out in Astoria for many more.

Pastor Ronald D. Martinson

CHURCH

A GOLDEN SUMMER DAY — About 150 guests flocked recently to the First Lutheran Church social rooms to honor the William Jarvis. They were married in Laurium, Mich., 50 years ago, but have lived in Astoria since 1944, when Bill came here to work at the Bumble Bee Seafoods cannery.

Summer bouquets in shades of gold decorated the table where Nedra Christenson and Ellen Peterson presided at the silver service. The reception was hosted by the Jarvis' son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Kris Jarvi, of Santa Clara, Calif. and by son Robert Jarvi of Astoria.

Bill and Kris cut the anniversary cake and young Matthew Jarvi had charge of the guest book. His brother, Patrick, ushered the guests to their seats. Astoria Mayor Edith Henningsgaard extended best wishes to the goldenweds.

Some out-of-town guests at the event were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Royal Oaks, Mich.; Martha Smith, Berkley, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Ridge and family, Poulsbo, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hartill, Aloha; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gerring and daughter, Tigard; and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Toreano, Laurium, Mich.

African guests

Pastor Michael Hanson, his wife, Elaine, and their daughters, Bethany, left, and Heidi, will be guests Sunday at First Lutheran Church.

Hanson was an intern at the church from 1978 to 1979. The Hansons are missionaries with the American Lutheran Church in Garoua Boulai, Cameroun.

Hanson will preach the sermon at the 8 and 10 a.m. services Sunday and the family will be honored at a coffee hour held between the two services.

After the later service, a potluck lunch will be served and the Hansons will talk about their experiences in Africa and show slides of their work.

Thank you...for the many cards, gifts and expressions of friendship that I received. The Coffee Hour and the individual visits were very special.

After 22 years in the church office working for you and with you, I am ready to pursue some interests that I have postponed for a few years. I am grateful for the many opportunities that I have had to share joys, sorrows, family activities, and church involvement with you. Through everything we share, I give thanks and glory to God for His many blessings.

A verse on one of the cards reads...
Retirement time--a time for looking back upon the past - at happy times with friends that made the years go by so fast.
Retirement time--a time for looking forward toward the future, too, to all the new adventures that are still ahead of you.

Thank you,
Donna

O Lord, our Maker, Redeemer, and Comforter, we are assembled in Thy presence to hear Thy holy word. Confession of Sin

Almighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess unto Thee, that we are by nature sinful and unclean, and that we have sinned against Thee by thought, word, and deed. - A Lutheran church in Astoria was dreamed of by the Norwegian immigrants early in the 1870's but attempts to organize met with little success.
- The entire population of the town did not exceed 2000, of which few were Scandinavians. Upper Astoria consisted of a handful of houses, located mostly in the two blocks between Thirty-first and Thirty-fourth Streets and scattered along the river bank. The only means of getting down town was by boat. Streets were unknown. The one occupation of the men was fishing in small boats on the Columbia River. Nearly twenty fish canneries were strung along the shore.
- Colonel John Adair, who had received a donation land claim from the government, had laid out a townsite separate from the rest of Astoria and organized a city government. He called this the Port of Upper Astoria, and as such it is still recorded in the county books. It was here that Colonel Adair established the first U.S. custom house in the Pacific Northwest.
- In 1876 the Norwegian Lutheran Synod of America sent Rev. and Mrs. Emil Christensen and their family out west to help in the development of the Lutheran church on the coast. It took them eight days and nine nights by train from Omaha to Sacramento. San Francisco did not have trains at that time. From San Francisco they took the steamer Ajax to Portland, where they stayed a while before coming to Astoria.
- Rev. Christensen was the only minister of our synod north of San Francisco and west of the Rocky Mountains. He held services here about once a month, dividing the rest of his time among the various parts of the Pacific Northwest.
- On January 27, 1877 the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran congregation was organized. In 1879 Rev. Christensen was ordered by the Synod to take up work in the Gennessee Valley in Idaho. From all reports and records this was the end of the Scandinavian Lutheran congregation in Astoria.

On the 7th day of September, 1884, a meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a Norwegian Lutheran congregation. They called themselves the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran congregation of Astoria, and on October 2, 1884, the articles of incorporation were formally adopted.
During the next 14 years the congregation was served by a number of pastors. Rev. Hagbart Engh served in 1884, Rev. Hove or Haave in 1890, Rev. Levorsen in 1891, Rev. Nissen in 1893, and Rev. Tonnesen 1894-96.

REV. THEODORE GULHAUGEN

Theodore Gulhaugen was born August 21, 1893, in Drammen, Norway. He looked very sickly. His good Lutheran parents, concerned that the boy would not live very long, called the parish pastor, who rowed over to the island where the family lived, and baptised him. Theodore not only survived, but grew strong, due not least to a long daily walk across a rail bridge off the island, and thence two miles to school.

In February of 1911 he came to the United States, settling in Seattle, where his brother, Lauris, worked in a sawmill. Ever a learner, Ted yearned to go from the Ballard area to that other "Little Norway", Decorah, Iowa, and attend Luther College. The distance to Parkland, however, was much shorter, so in 1915, he enrolled at Pacific Lutheran Academy. In 1916, the mission board of the Norwegian Synod called this young immigrant to make yet another big move and go to Alaska to serve the Eskimos. "I was not used to saying 'No' to the church" he explained when asked why such a young student would accept that distant responsibility. He served Teller Mission and Mary's Igloo (!) on the Seward Peninsula.....working at a school for Eskimo children, and at both missions.

In 1917 Ted returned and attended the seminary in Red Wing, Minnesota. In 1918 he entered Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, graduating in 1921. He was ordained that year and was called by the Mission Board of the Pacific District. He first lived in Kennewick, and served 4 congregations in the Yakima Valley. In 1926 he moved to New Westminster, B.C. and served 2 congregations there. In the depths of the Great Depression he moved to South Bend, Washington, serving the congregation there and in Raymond. Without regrets, certainly not seeking any sympathy, Ted remembers that he walked between those towns, not being able to afford an automobile in 1930. In 1936 he became pastor in Astoria, Oregon, but also served Puget Island and Chinook, Washington, from there. In 1948 he became pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church in North Sacramento, California. This was the first time in his ministry that he served a "one point" parish. While in Sacramento, he took part in the establishing of California Lutheran College at Thousand Oaks. While in Astoria, it was Pastor Gulhaugen who first had the vision of the need of a larger church and started raising funds. The Sunday School children saved "extra" pennies and nickels for the door fund of the new church.

Pastor Gulhaugen retired from full minsitry in 1962, and accepted the call to become visitation pastor at Trinity, Parkland, Washington. His kind words and friendly presence in the church and community have brought strength and joy to young and old. He still conducts an adult Bible class, and organizes senior citizen meetings at Trinity.

Being student, missionary, preacher, teacher, pastor--these roles have not overshadowed his calling as husband and father. In 1921 he married Gertrude Christensen. She died in 1966. The five children continue to be a happy part of Ted's life. Martin is pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Tacoma. Grace Elaine (Mrs. L.E. LaBar) lives in Vineland, New Jersey. Rumohr Gamm lives in Minneapolis; Kathryn (Mrs. Richard Clare) in Redding, California. Teddi (Mrs. Leland Mebust) is in New Freedom, Pennsylvania. This extended family has 20 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Today, January 8, 1984, we are honored to have Theodore Gulhaugen as our guest, along with his son, Pastor Martin Gulhaugen. Martin Gulhaugen is presently serving Gloria Dei Lutheran of Tacoma, Washington.

Anniversary celebration continues at First Lutheran

Pastor Chet Johnson will be honored Sunday, April 15, at the next anniversary celebration at First Lutheran Church in Astoria.

Johnson is the current pastor at First Lutheran. The church is observing its 100th anniversary this year with monthly programs honoring those who have served the congregation during past years. A family potluck dinner is planned following the 11 a.m. worship service.

Johnson has been the minister at First Lutheran since October 1980. He originally came to Astoria as the Administrator at the Clatsop Care and Rehabilitation Center. Johnson previously served Lutheran congregations in North Dakota and Copenhagen, Denmark.

Pastor Johnson and his wife, Helen, are from Minnesota. They have four children. The youngest, David, is a graduate of Astoria High School. He is now a student at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma.

Pastor Chet Johnson

Besides the anniversary program this Palm Sunday, a special all-church Sunday School program is scheduled at 9:45 a.m. The program will use scripture and song to remember the events of Holy Week and ponder the sacrifice Christ made for man's sins. The offering taken during the program will be given to the Needy Children's Fund of Clatsop County.

First Lutheran celebrates 100 years

Astoria First Lutheran Church will celebrate its 100th anniversary this year, beginning with Sunday's 8:30 and 11 a.m. services.

Pastor Theodore Gulhaugen, 90, who served at First Lutheran from 1936 to 1948, will be a guest at the services. His son, Martin Gulhaugen, pastor at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Tacoma, Wash., will accompany him.

The elder Gulhaugen, now retired, conducts an adult Bible class and organizes senior citizens meetings at Trinity Lutheran Church in Tacoma. He recently received the "nurturing teacher award" from the North Pacific District of the American Lutheran Church.

A native of Drammen, Norway, Gulhaugen came to the United States in 1911, settling in Seattle. After enrolling in what was then Pacific Lutheran Academy in 1916, he was sent by the Norwegian Synod board to minister to Eskimos, and taught school and cared for two missions on the Seward Peninsula. In 1921 he graduated from Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minn., and served several congregations in Washington. During the Depression he was minister simultaneously to congregations in South Bend and Raymond, Wash., walking between the two towns because he was unable to afford a car. Gulhaugen was instrumental in founding California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

While serving as pastor at First Lutheran, he also served Puget Island and Chinook, Wash. He retired in 1962. His wife, Gertrude, was the granddaughter of Emil Christensen, founder of the church. She died in 1966.

Martin Gulhaugen, who attended Astoria schools, will assist his father at the services.

A potluck dinner will honor the two pastors following the 11 a.m. service; the program will include memories of church history.

Stanza One (Everyone sings)
Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms,
Has blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

Stanza Two (Everyone sings)
Oh, may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all harm
In this world and the next.

Reader Two

Stanza Three (Everyone sings)
All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heav'n adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

Lutheran Church Women meet

By VENUS LUUKINEN

The February 7 meeting of First Lutheran Church Women was a very special event.

The Valentine theme used in decorating the tables created beauty for the eyes; while the theme, "Women of Faith" in Bible verses, poems and songs brought beauty to the ears.

The love shown by the younger women of Joy Circle in planning, preparing, and serving a bounteous brunch, as well as the presence of many other women of the church created beauty for the spirit.

The twenty-one members of Faith Circle were seated at the center table, and each was presented with a carnation corsage.

In October 1922, a group of friends in First Lutheran Church formed the Girl's Guild. Olga Henningsen, Grace Johnson, Madeline Kvistad, Margaret Lervick, and Eda Ross have been active members through two name changes and more than sixty-four years.

With more than twenty other women who have joined since, Faith Circle members continue to be active, especially in helping make quilts for Lutheran World Relief. They have no plans to retire at sixty-five.

BOB HAUKE

TO ERIC AND LENORE
AS WE REMEMBER MAY 15, 1937

On this golden day, filled with memories and dreams
Of Lenore and Eric, a remarkable team,
Their family and friends have all gathered to pay
Their respects and bring wishes to honor the day
When the Haukes, chosen as partners for life,
Stepped forth together as husband and wife.

They both had grown up in the corner northwest
Of the great state of Oregon -- home of the best!
Lenore was a country girl, raised in Fernhill;
She lived there with her parents, Nita and Bill,
In a fine family home just above the John Day.
There must have been times when they all found a way
To head into Astoria, looking for fun,
When the schoolwork and chores on the place were all done.

Meanwhile, in town lived a young Hauke lad.
From a family of nine, named after his Dad,
Was Eric, a fellow with talent and charm
(Someday he'd meet up with this girl from the farm!)
During those years, both their lives seemed complete,
But those two Norwegians were destined to meet.
To this day they tease 'bout which high school was best:
She went to Knappa; he, A. H. S.

Once out of school, they separately sought
To start making a living; young Eric had thought
That his Dad's grocery business just didn't appeal,
So he tried working elsewhere, to test out his feel
For some other good jobs that would show him some way
To not be a grocer the rest of his days!
He started in working for Astoria Abstract,
At first unaware of this one vital fact:
On the floor up above, Lenore and her sis
Had opened a beauty salon. Things went like this:
Each day, when Lenore went to work at "LenClaire",
Eric was eyeing that young girl up there!
He soon asked her out, and began, it appears,
A love that has lasted for fifty fine years.

While they were dating, one sign of romance
Was discovering, with joy, that they both loved to dance.
They'd head down to Seaside, when working was done,
To a place called The Bungalow, just to have fun.
One special time things were just a bit hard
'Cause Eric belonged to the National Guard
And was serving on duty just outside of town,
But could not leave the base for Lenore to come down.
Well, Eric persuaded....(he must have had clout),
Because one of the officers let him get out
And they headed for Seaside---time for romancing
With Ted Florito's band playing for dancing.
Betty Grable was singing that night with the band....
The music was special, and the memories were grand!

Eric, meanwhile, was still trying to find
Some great line of work that would challenge his mind
And add to his wallet, for as a young man,
He was starting to think about "settling down" plans.
The Abstract job paid, by the month, sixty bucks,
And they wouldn't give raises, so Eric felt stuck
And decided to work for Engebritson Seed;
It seems over there they had some kind of need
For someone to handle the big seed machine.
But it was boring and dusty---not his kind of scene!
Just about that time he learned from a friend
That Union Oil needed some truck-driving men.
So he started with them, at one twenty-five.
On that kind of money, he just might survive.
Within a few months, this eager young man
Was transferred to Kelso, and then he began
A series of letters that ended in this:
The Astoria guy and the sweet Fernhill miss
Decided to marry, to share their young life,
And they planned for the day when they'd be man and wife.
Lenore's father, Bill, gave his blessing by saying,
"You might as well marry, 'cause I'm tired of paying
To feed this young fellow. I guess if you need him
It might be lots cheaper---for I won't have to feed him!"
Eric admitted that he had been charmed
By a girl from the country, just fresh off the farm,
And before they could marry, she'd think it a treat
If he brought her to town and put shoes on her feet!

In nineteen thirty-seven, on the fifteenth of May,
In the church up on Grand was their happiest day.
Reverend Gulhaugen their vows did repeat
And for Eric and Lenore, their joy was complete.
His younger brother Holden stood near Eric's side
While Lenore's sister Mabel held the hand of the bride.
Eleanor Hauke and Ruth Carlson were Lenore's friends who Were members of the wedding, and Walt Christensen, too,
Along with Randall Rebe, the groom's closest pals.
Friends for a lifetime were these fellows and gals.
The Astorian Budget proclaimed far and wide
That young Eric Hauke had taken a bride!

He thought she had money; she thought he had some.
It turned out that between them they had almost none!
They borrowed some funds, which they needed, all right:
The Monticello in Longview was four dollars a night!
Then on to Seattle, to just look around
As new honeymooners enjoying the town.

They moved quite a bit in their first years together.
Union Oil sent them from one town to another:
First Longview, then Kelso, and they then moved anew
To nearby Vancouver, where the two of them grew
To a family of three, and their lives were so blessed
When Gail was born to add joy to their nest.

But during these years they had clung to the thought
That maybe the oil business simply was not
The job that was best for them both to pursue.
They thought of Astoria, and knew what to do:
E. Hauke and Company needed that son
In their grocery business---so he was the one
To come back to town and take over the store.
In the year '41, Eric walked through the door
And into the world of produce and meat,
Of groceries and dairy, a life most complete.
For running the store meant not just eight to five,
But more "six to midnight"---and the Haukes all thrived.
In the spring, '43, they counted their joys
As young Eric arrived, the first of the boys.
Just fifteen months later, they welcomed another;
And Gail and Skip had young Bob as their brother.

Their family complete, they needed more space
And looked 'round Astoria to find just the place.
In Uppertown, near to the needs of the store,
280-39th was for sale--and what's more,
They paid cash, and among all the extras they got
Were some furniture, dishes, some pans and some pots.
In they all moved and Lenore, with a smile,
Said "It's just a house--what it needs is some style!"
So over the years, with her talent and flair,
She created a home for the ones who lived there.
She hammered and painted, she cooked and she sewed;
She worked in the garden, she planted and hoed.
Once, when the boys won them as carnival prizes,
She began raising ducks, with eggs of all sizes!
They, after some years, sold that first home, complete,
To the fine Irby family and moved a few feet
To the house right next door, where they live to this day
In a home full of charm, planned the Norwegian way.

Eric, meanwhile, as he watched passing years,
Was in to his grocery work up to his ears.
The store needed remodeling; as everyone knew,
What originally stood there would simply not do.
So in '50, '57, and again '65,
E. Hauke and Company continued to thrive
As the store changed, updated and added a lot,
And Eric was there, making sure it would not Take any back seat to the big Portland places.
He was proud of that store and its family faces.
When building the business, everyone worked:
The kids pushed a broom and Lenore often clerked.
Hauke the Grocer was in a position
To proudly continue the family tradition!

And continue it did, but as the years passed,
Eric was fearful that he'd be the last
Of the family grocers, for their kids had all found
That no one was too eager to come back to town
And take over the store, so Eric would worry.
But decisions like that can't be made in a hurry!
One glorious day, in the year '71
Came a fantastic phone call from number #1 son.
Skip had decided that the corporate race
Was not what he wanted---he was seeking a place
To raise his own family in a quality life.
So to Astoria he came, with his charming young wife.
For five years or so, they worked all the more,
Two Erics together, improving the store,
Till Eric the father, in the year '76,
Said "Enough of this hassle! I'm calling it quits!"
And so he retired to spend time with Lenore
In their home on the hill overlooking the shore.

Now they open that home and continue to build
On a spirit of giving that makes life fulfilled.
Their children do visit as oft' as they can,
And their grandchildren, too--for Steve and JoAnn
And David and Dale know, as do all of the rest,
That if you need a place to be treated the best,
With the cookie jar full and the coffee pot on,
Go to Eric and Lenore's and you'll never go wrong!

The years have been full ones for Eric and Lenore---
Much energy, clearly, went into the store
And into the lives of their three active kids.
But that wasn't all that this busy pair did!
They give time to the church, where for decades they've been Pillars of strength at First Lutheran---and then,
Eric served years as a Councilman, too;
In the city of Astoria, everyone knew
That he'd give of his time and loved being asked
When it came time for tackling some hard civic task.
For the fine Sons of Norway, for the Astoria Lions,
They've got volunteering right down to a science!
The Scandinavian Festival, in June of each year,
Finds them baking the lefse or serving the beer.
When any group needs a dependable pair,
Eric and Lenore are standing right there.
No grass ever grows under these pairs of feet:
Fifty years worth of energy just can't be beat!
At times, what they love to do just for unwinding
Is go golfing or dancing, and often they're finding
That some time on their houseboat, moored out in the John Day,
Is a perfect excuse for just slipping away.

To their family and friends, through laughter and tears,
They've devoted their lives for fifty fine years.
The good that they've done, the examples they've set
Have strengthened their bonds in the years since they met.
Now, as we gather to honor them both,
We're proud of this marriage and offer a toast
To many more years of this marital bliss.
"Though they need no advice, we'll offer them this:
"May your days all be golden, you wonderful pair,
For you brighten the lives of the many who care!"

To Aunt Lenore and Uncle Eric with love, admiration, and appreciation.....

CHURCH OFFICE

Faith Circle celebrates sixty-fifth

Celebrating their sixty-fifth anniversary, forty members and friends of Faith Circle, an auxiliary of First Lutheran Church, met at the church for a special luncheon and program.

This group had organized as high school girls of the church under the guidance of the pastor's wife, Mrs. Carl Losen in 1922. The first president, Madeline Kvistad, was present at the anniversary along with charter members Olga Henningsen, Grace Johnson, Eda Ross, and Margaret Lervick who still belong to the group. Another charter member, Clara Miles of Vancouver, Wash., was in attendance.

Special guests were Pastor Arne Strandjord, a former pastor, and his wife Eunice from Vancouver, Wash., and former members of the society: Adela Orwick, Carol Nygaard and Marian Van Osdol from the Astoria area; and Martha Swan of Long Beach, Wash. Also attending were the church staff and their wives, Pastor Chet Johnson and Helen; Lay assistant Paul Sarff and Sharon and daughter Bethany; and the church secretary Anne Howard-Orwick. Grace Eliassen, who has played for so many of the group programs, came to play for a sing-along.

A group picture was taken, followed by a luncheon catered by Chef Rubio and served by Berean Circle. A program then followed with Paul Sarff singing a solo. Pastor Johnson included a brief description of his recent trip to the Scandinavian countries. He had been a guest minister at a twenty-fifth anniversary of the English-speaking church of Copenhagen, Denmark, where he had served three years as a pastor.

Pastor Arne Strandjord gave a warm greeting, and at the end of the program was requested to sing a Norwegian hymn.

Nedra Christensen, group chairman, spoke of the Circle's part in the church work, and the blessings of being in the church. She urged them to not retire themselves from future service in God's house.

This was followed by letters of greeting from Anna Storaasli and Marilyn Martinson, both former pastor's wives who reminisced about past events. The letters were read by Ellen Peterson. Beatrice Swensen contributed two very funny poems about growing old. Other members added anecdotes as they "remembered when." All joined heartily in singing together, ending with "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

A LITTLE MIXED UP

JUST A LINE TO SAY I'M LIVING
THAT I'M NOT AMONG THE DEAD
THO I'M GETTING MORE FORGETFUL AND MIXED UP IN MY HEAD.

I'VE GOT USED TO MY ARTHRITIS
TO MY DENTURES I'M RESIGNED
I CAN MANAGE MY BIFOCALS
BUT OH GOD, I MISS MY MIND.

FOR SOMETIMES I CAN'T REMEMBER
WHEN I STAND AT THE FOOT OF THE STAIRS
IF I MUST GO UP FOR SOMETHING
OR I'VE JUST COME DOWN FROM THERE.

AND BEFORE THE FRIDGE SO OFTEN
MY POOR MIND IS FILLED WITH DOUBT
HAVE I JUST PUT FOOD AWAY
OR HAVE I COME TO TAKE SOME OUT.

AND THERE'S TIME WHEN IT IS DARK
WITH MY NIGHT CAP ON MY HEAD
I DON'T KNOWN IF I'M RETIREING
OR JUST GETTING OUT OF BED.

SO IF IT'S TIME TO WRITE YOU
THERE'S NO NEED OF GETTING SORE
I MAY THINK I HAVE WRITTEN AND DON'T WANT TO BE A BORE.

SO REMEMBER THAT I DO LOVE YOU
AND I WISH THAT YOU WERE NEAR AND NOW IT'S REALLY MAIL TIME
SO MUST SAY GOODBYE, DEAR.

Here I'm standing by
THERE I STOOD BESIDE THE MAIL BOX
~~WITH A FACE SO VERY RED~~ I'm sure my face is very red
INSTEAD OF MAILING YOU MY LETTER
I HAD OPENED IT INSTEAD.

Sixty five years! Time to retire, you say.
Yes, Faith Circle has reached a "ripe old age"
We no longer hold jobs or have young children at home.
Our "get up and go" goes just a little faster each year.
Our steps go a little slower, we don't give big dinners,
We don't teach Sunday school, and no longer sew for bazaars.
But, are we ready to retire from helping where we can in the work of the church?

Has God retired from caring for us? Has He decided it is too much unthanked effort to give us strength and comfort to meet loss of loved ones, disabling illnesses, and the many problems we have in our daily lives. No! His Word, His church, His church family, His caring for the hungry, the homeless and the lonely are with us now, tomorrow and always!

Earthly things can be taken away, even earthly loved ones may die. But God is still our God, and His church, and the loving friends within it are ever with us. We are not alone. He is as close as a word of pray~~er~~ or inspired truths of the Bible. We can worship freely in ~~God's~~ house, God's Our faltering voices can sing our songs of praise, and we can feel a warm, shared feeling as we worship and fellowship with our fellow Christians.

We still can cook a cup of coffee and some cookies when our turn comes to serve in the fellowship hour. We can come to services, we can still make quilts for world relief, we can come to afternoon meetings with old friends. We can add our money as we are able to carry on the church worship. We can still be witnesses of Christ by our attendance and daily lives.

Age does take its tole on health and mobility. Some, who have served faithly these many years are now not able. Their faith and prayers are still very important. And the rest of us need to cherish them and each other. Where once we arranged silver and gold wedding anniversaries, now we're found giving coffees after funerals and visiting the sick. But there is a place for all and our hands can continue to serve as long as we are able.

We rejoice that there are many younger peope in our church, and a large Sunday school continues to train the children in truths of God. We rejoice that we have a pastor who preaches God's Word, comforts the sick and grieving, counsels and encourages the young and draws in the unchurched to join in with us. We rejoice that we have a dedicated, gifted young assistant who works faithfully with the children and young peope to teach the richness of the Christian life, and shares his musical talents so willingly. We rejoice that we may share in a growing, caring, friendly congregation. We rejoice that through it all we are children of a God, and Saviour who died that our sins might be forgiven.

No, Faith Circle may be sixty five, but we are not retiring from Christian service. If it takes a little more effort to keep going, Let's put forth the effort. With God "all things are possible" Let's not say "No, I can't", let's say "Yes, with God's help". Let's be givers, not takers. Let's be sharers, not grabbers. There are those who need us, those who are worse off than we are, and God has use for each of us. We are members of a living church, worshipping a living God. Let us to continue to serve to the best of our strength and abilities in First Lutheran Church!

Do you remember when----
